RE: BYLAW NO. 429 - REGIONAL BROADBAND 'LAST MILE' BORROWING AUTHORIZATION

PURPOSE/PROBLEM

To consider moving forward with Bylaw No. 429 which would authorize the Regional District to borrow funds for the purpose of capital financing high-speed internet infrastructure in Gold River, Tahsis, Sayward and part of Quadra Island to connect residents, businesses and other entities to the Connected Coast network.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The attached Bylaw No. 429 was considered at the April 14, 2021 meeting of the Regional Board at which time the bylaw was given first 3 readings and the following resolution was passed:

Cornfield/Davis: SRD 328/21

THAT elector approval for Bylaw No. 429 be authorized to be obtained by alternative approval process.

Bylaw No. 429 has now been approved by the Inspector of Municipalities and it would be in order for the Board to proceed with an alternative approval process (AAP) to gauge elector support for the initiative. In order to do that, the Board will need to approve the elector response form to be used, the deadline for elector responses and the total number of electors eligible to participate in the AAP. All of that information will be available to the public as part of the bylaw approval process.

At the conclusion of the elector response period a further report will be presented to the Board with the results of the AAP and, in the event that less than 10% of the electors submit written objections prior to the deadline, the Board may proceed with adoption of Bylaw No. 429 without further approvals. On the other hand, if at least 10% of the total electors respond in the negative, the Board will only be able to adopt Bylaw No. 429 if an assent voting opportunity is provided and a majority of electors who cast a vote do so in favour of the bylaw.

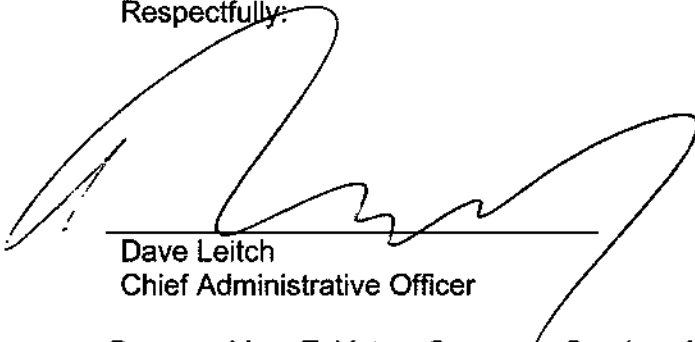

A schedule for advancing this initiative has been prepared and is attached to this report for the Board's information.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. THAT the report from the Chief Administrative Officer be received.
2. THAT the elector response form attached to the June 17, 2021 report from the Chief Administrative Officer be approved for the alternative approval process for Bylaw No. 429.

3. THAT the total number of electors within the area affected by Bylaw No. 429 be fairly determined as 34,729 for purposes of the alternative approval process.
4. THAT the deadline for submission of elector responses in respect of the alternative approval process for Bylaw No. 429 be established as 12:00 noon on Monday, August 30, 2021.
5. THAT Bylaw No. 429 be returned for further consideration at the September 8, 2021 Board meeting.

Regional Broadband Infrastructure Bylaw No. 429

Determination of Total Number of Electors for Purposes of an Alternate Approval Process

- Purpose: To make a fair determination of the total number of electors within the area affected by Bylaw No. 429, being Regional Broadband Infrastructure Loan Authorization Bylaw 2018, Amendment No.1. An elector is defined as a person who would qualify to vote on the question of approving Bylaw No. 429 if such a vote was to be held on the date this report was prepared.
- Area Affected: The area affected by Bylaw No. 429 is the entire Strathcona Regional District including the City of Campbell River, Village of Gold River, Village of Sayward, Village of Tahsis, Village of Zeballos and Electoral Areas A, B, C and D.
- Approval Process: The Regional District intends to proceed with an alternative approval process to determine whether Bylaw No. 429 may be adopted without first obtaining the assent of the electors by voting. Should it be determined that less than ten percent of the eligible electors within the Strathcona Regional District file a written objection to Bylaw No. 429 prior to the deadline for responses, the Regional Board may proceed to adoption without the requirement to obtain elector assent by voting in accordance with the provisions¹ of the Local Government Act. In the event ten percent or more of eligible electors object to adoption of Bylaw No. 429 prior to the response deadline, the bylaw may only be adopted if approved through an assent voting process.
- Authority: The use of an alternative approval process for obtaining the approval of the electors for Bylaw No. 429 is authorized by section 407(3)(b) of the Local Government Act.
- Elector Eligibility: For the purposes of this report the criteria used for determining the eligibility of persons to vote as electors is based on Part 4 [Assent Voting] of the Local Government Act of British Columbia. That statute defines electors to include persons who meet the following criteria:
- Canadian citizen
 - 18 years of age or older
 - resident of British Columbia for the last 6 months
 - resident of (or owner of real property within) the voting jurisdiction for the last 30 days
 - not otherwise disqualified from voting

Corporate entities are not permitted to qualify as electors in British Columbia.

Methodology:

This report will attempt to make a fair determination of the total number of electors within the area affected by Bylaw No. 429. The number of electors will be the total of those persons who qualify to vote as resident electors and those who qualify to vote as non-resident property electors. Since the methodologies for determining the total number of each type of elector differ significantly, they will need to be determined separately with the results of those calculations aggregated for the purposes of this report.

Resident Electors

Both the Federal and Provincial election authorities maintain lists of registered voters but the databases are not aligned with local government jurisdictional boundaries and are therefore not particularly useful for purposes of this report. Since there is no reliable information available using existing voter enumeration data, it is necessary to consider the use of other data for the purpose of preparing an estimate of eligible electors.

BC Stats and ElectionsBC are public agencies which maintain comprehensive databases of population, population distribution, voter eligibility, voter participation rates and other demographics. The following data are supplied by those agencies:

Demographic	Estimate	Source
Population of British Columbia	5,071,336	BC Stats (July 1, 2019)
Population of Strathcona Regional District	49,085	BC Stats (July 1, 2019)
Provincial electors in British Columbia	3,564,307	Elections BC (July 1, 2019)

Using the above data it is can be determined that approximately 70.28% of the population of British Columbia would likely qualify as provincial electors. Notwithstanding minor variations in regional demographics it is believed that this ratio would be sufficiently accurate for estimating the number of provincial electors within the Strathcona Regional District. Since the majority of qualifications required for voting in provincial elections are the same as those required for voting as a resident in local elections, the application of this ratio should provide a reasonable starting point for estimating the number of resident electors within the Strathcona Regional District. Therefore, multiplying the above percentage against the 49,085 population estimate provided by BC Stats yields a total of 34,499 eligible provincial electors resident in the Regional District.

Since there is a minimum residency² requirement associated with qualifying to vote locally it is necessary to eliminate from the above estimate the number of electors who have not resided within the boundaries of the Regional District for the past 30 days. BC Stats maintains annual estimates of international, interprovincial and intraprovincial immigration and emigration for each regional district in British Columbia and has estimated that total in-migration of 2,909 persons occurred between mid-2018 and mid-2019 for the Strathcona Regional District. Although this data does not include 2020 migration numbers it is the most recent data available and is fairly consistent with previous years. Therefore, assuming that in-migration continues to occur at this rate and that the rate is fairly constant throughout the year, an estimate of the number of persons who move to the Strathcona Regional District within a typical 30 day period may be calculated as follows:

$$\begin{array}{r} 30 \text{ days} \\ \text{-----} \times 2,909 = 239 \\ 365 \text{ days} \end{array}$$

Assuming that the provincial ratio of 70.28% eligible electors to total population also applies to recent arrivals, it may be concluded that 168 residents would be disqualified from voting for failing to meet the 30-day residency requirement.

The calculations for resident electors within the Strathcona Regional District may therefore be summarized as follows:

$$\begin{array}{l} \text{Step 1:} \quad 3,564,307 \text{ (eligible provincial electors)} \\ \quad \div 5,071,336 \text{ (total population of B.C.)} \\ \quad = 70.28\% \text{ (B.C. average \% of electors)} \end{array}$$

$$\begin{array}{l} \text{Step 3:} \quad 34,499 \text{ (Strathcona Regional District resident electors)} \\ \quad \quad \quad -239 \text{ (30 day residency disqualification)} \\ \quad = 34,260 \text{ (net Strathcona Regional District resident electors)} \end{array}$$

It is concluded that a fair estimate of the number of resident electors within the Strathcona Regional District, based on the above noted data and taking into account those who would be disqualified from voting due to having recently arrived in the Regional District, is 34,260.

Non-Resident Property Electors

Unlike Provincial elections in British Columbia, persons who do not reside within the local voting jurisdiction may qualify to vote in local elections solely on the basis of property ownership³. These non-resident property electors (NRPE's) must be qualified in all other respects (ie. Canadian citizen, 18 years of age or older, resident of BC, etc.) before they may be considered eligible electors. It is important to reiterate that persons who qualify as resident electors within a voting jurisdiction cannot also qualify as non-resident property electors for the same voting jurisdiction.

Demographic	Count	Source
Total properties within Strathcona Regional District	24,159	BC Assessment Authority (April 16, 2021)
Total registered owners within Strathcona Regional District	30,030
Registered owners resident within Strathcona Regional District	26,952
Registered owners resident outside of British Columbia	1,264

In order to estimate the number of NRPE's within the boundaries of the Strathcona Regional District the database of the BC Assessment Authority was queried, and it was determined that there are 24,159 separate properties within the Regional District and 30,030 unique registered owners of those properties.

From this total of 30,030 potential electors the following were eliminated in order:

- 26,952 owners of property resident within the Strathcona Regional District;
- 1,264 owners being non-residents of British Columbia;
- 1,328 owners being corporate entities; and
- 17 properties owned by the Crown (Federal or Provincial);

It was therefore concluded that a reasonable estimate of the number of persons who could qualify to vote as non-resident property electors within the Regional District, based on the most recently available data, is 469. In arriving at this estimate it is worth noting that voting requirements related to age or citizenship of property owners have not been addressed since there is no data available to the Regional District upon which it could evaluate this demographic.

Summary:

The total number of eligible electors within the Strathcona Regional District has been fairly determined to include 34,260 residential electors and 469 non-resident property electors for a total of 34,729.

Conclusion:

For the purpose of the alternative approval process for Bylaw No. 429, being Regional Broadband Infrastructure Loan Authorization Bylaw 2018, Amendment No.1, the total number of eligible electors has been fairly determined to be 34,729. The number of valid elector responses that are required to withhold approval for the adoption of Bylaw No. 429 without first obtaining elector assent by voting is therefore 3,473.

ELECTOR RESPONSE FORM
Bylaw No. 429 (Broadband Infrastructure Loan Authorization Amendment)

The Board of directors for the Strathcona Regional District is seeking the approval of the electors by alternative approval process for Bylaw No. 429, being Regional Broadband Infrastructure Loan Authorization Bylaw 2018, Amendment No.1. If adopted, Bylaw No. 429 would authorize the Regional District to increase its borrowing authority from $6 million to $18 million to fund broadband infrastructure in the region.

Capital funds borrowed under the authority of Bylaw No. 429 would be available for financing the construction of broadband infrastructure, including 'last-mile' infrastructure to serve homes, businesses and other organizations within the Gold River, Quadra Island, Sayward and Tahsis areas. The Regional District has entered into an agreement with City West Cable and Telephone Corporation which would construct and operate the 'last mile' infrastructure using capital financing provided by the Regional District. City West would reimburse the Regional District for all costs of borrowing (including principal and interest payments) over a period not to exceed 25 years.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. If you qualify as an elector for the Strathcona Regional District and are opposed to the adoption of Bylaw No. 429 you may sign and submit an elector response form.
2. If you are NOT opposed to the adoption of Bylaw No. 429 you need not do anything.
3. To submit an elector response form you must qualify as a resident elector or a non-resident property elector for the Strathcona Regional District.

[Note: Only one non-resident property elector may submit an elector response form per property regardless of the number of owners for that property. If a property is owned by more than one person the elector appointed by a majority of the property owners must submit written authorization from those property owners (see page below). Corporate entities are unable to qualify as electors.]

4. Only one elector per elector response form is permitted.

Elector response forms must be received by the Regional District not later than 12:00 noon on Tuesday, August 3, 2021.

Emailed or faxed elector response forms cannot be accepted; forms must contain original signatures to be valid.

The total number of electors in the Regional District has been fairly determined to be 34,729. Unless at least 10% of those electors submit an elector response form to oppose the adoption of Bylaw No. 429 the Regional District may adopt the bylaw without first obtaining the assent of the electors by voting.
