

Cultural Sensitivity Training

You are invited!

This event is part of the Cortes Island School Wetland Restoration Project, which presents the opportunity to replenish wetlands with Indigenous medicinal plants and to revitalize Traditional and Indigenous Ecological Knowledge.

Included in the training:

- “History of the Coast Salish People”: a Cultural Sensitivity Presentation (Kelsie Robinson, Strathcona Regional District)
- “Community is the Medicine” (Duane Hanson, Klahoose First Nation)

Thurs., June 12th, 2025, 3:15 - 5:00pm at Cortes Island School, portable building (950 Beesley Rd.)

For more information: michael.datura@sd72.bc.ca

This event is hosted in collaboration with Klahoose First Nation, Cortes Island School, REWILDING WATER & EARTH INC., and Strathcona Regional District.